

Kenneth J. Ecury
President/ Managing Director

Ken J. Ecury (Aruba, 1950) began his musical career at the age of seven having the piano- accordion as his first instrument. Later he studied diatonic Venezuelan harp under the tutelage of Professor Esther de Castro. As a harpist he toured Canada, the U.S. and European countries giving recitals and school concerts as a soloist and member of the group JYA-SU.

Ken is a sociologist for the Free University of Amsterdam and the National Autonomous University of Mexico, specialized in educational sociology. From 1981 to 1983 Ken studies at the Maastricht Conservatory in the Netherlands. In 1983 Ken moves back to his homeland Aruba, where he was a project developer and entrepreneur. Back in Guadalajara, Mexico in 1993 Ken studies Contemporanean Tonal Harmony and composition. Since 1995 Ken resides in Málaga, southern Spain, where he teaches Contemporanean Tonal Harmony. Ken is the founder of the New European Piano School, CEO of Piano Spain Import Company and president of the Lucid Piano Company.